EVERGREEN HOME LOANS™ NAMES CRYSTAL ADAIR AS VICE PRESIDENT OF LOAN FULFILLMENT

BELLEVUE, Wash. – Sep. 15, 2021 – Evergreen Home Loans, a full-service direct home loan lender in the Western U.S., today announced the addition of Crystal Adair as its new vice president of loan fulfillment. Adair will oversee several key departments and workflows in processing, underwriting, funding and post-closing, as well as the management of technology initiatives that support goals for automation and efficiency.

Adair joins Evergreen Home Loans with more than 20 years of experience in the mortgage lending space from companies such as Freedom Mortgage, Bank of America and Countrywide. Over the past five years, Adair served as vice president of operations for joint ventures at Loan Depot.

“The addition of Crystal to our management team supports Evergreen’s aggressive company-wide growth goals into 2022 and beyond,” said Tamra Rieger, chief operating officer for Evergreen Home Loans. “With her support and experience in managing high performance operations teams, we will continue to enhance both the internal and external customer experience.”

“Evergreen Home Loans offers strong customer engagement components that allow loan officers and real estate agents alike to work in a collaborative environment that supports every participant in the home loan process,” said Adair. “I look forward to contributing to its operations and leadership by continuing to identify ways to amplify existing programs and work toward company goals.”
