

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

EVERGREEN HOME LOANS™ NAMES JOHN ENDRES AS AREA MANAGER FOR SEATTLE MARKET

BELLEVUE, Washington – Sep. 8, 2021 – Evergreen Home Loans, a full-service direct home loan lender in the Western U.S., today announced the promotion of John Endres to area manager. In this new role, John will manage loan production for the Seattle market, as well as support recruitment and retention of loan officer talent in Idaho.

Upon joining Evergreen Home Loans in March 2019, Endres served as branch manager and senior loan officer for the Evergreen Seattle office. Since then, the branch volume has grown to record levels. In addition, Endres expanded the office through targeted new hire talent and Individual planning with existing loan officers to expand their business.

“From the start, John has been instrumental in growing our Seattle business,” said Don Zender, executive vice president of loan production for Evergreen Home Loans. “As an originator and branch manager, John understands what it takes to deliver an exceptional customer experience while helping our loan officers realize their maximum potential.”

Over the past two years, Endres has been a recognized President’s Club Member, which honors top performers within the company. Prior to his time at Evergreen, he held manager positions for a number of national banks.

“I’m very excited about this new opportunity at Evergreen. We’re well positioned to grow and expand our offices and attract loan officers who seek a great culture and a place to build their business,” said Endres. “We’ve made significant, high-technology investments through our Evergreen Advantage™ platform, and now we’re in the middle of launching our CashUp™ program to help give homebuyers the upper hand in this competitive environment. At Evergreen, loan officers have so many tools that can improve their productivity while satisfying more customers and real estate agents.”
