

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

EVERGREEN HOME LOANS™ NAMES KEN MACDONALD AS SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT INNOVATIVE PRODUCTS

BELLEVUE, Washington — October 28, 2021 — Evergreen Home Loans, a full-service direct home loan lender in the Western U.S., announced today the addition of Ken MacDonald as its new senior vice president innovative products. MacDonald will be responsible for adding new investors, loan programs, and developing innovative products that will add to the company’s unique product offering including CashUp™ by Evergreen.

MacDonald joins Evergreen with more than 20 years of mortgage lending experience and was most recently at HomeStreet Bank where he served as the first vice president secondary marketing manager.

“We’re excited to welcome Ken to our management team and accelerate the development of innovative product solutions like our CashUp by Evergreen program.” Said Tamra Rieger, chief operating officer for Evergreen Home Loans. “With his leadership and extensive secondary marketing experience, we’ll continue to expand our home loan products to serve a wider range of customers and create more opportunities for our family of loan officers and business partners.”

“Evergreen is a leader in mortgage technology and niche products that allows them to remain nimble and effective in changing markets,” said MacDonald. “I look forward to strengthening their current menu of financing products and developing new products to meet the company’s bold goals for growth in 2022.”
