

EVERGREEN HOME LOANS PRESIDENT TAMRA RIEGER RECOGNIZED AS 2022 MORTGAGE STAR

Mortgage Women Magazine honors and celebrates women in the industry who rise above the rest

BELLEVUE, Wash. – July 6, 2022 – Evergreen Home Loans, a full-service direct home loan lender in the Western U.S., announced today that President Tamra Rieger was named as a 2022 Mortgage Star by Mortgage Women Magazine. This award aims to highlight women in the mortgage industry who find ways to inspire, advance and achieve beyond the norm.

"I'm incredibly honored to be recognized for this award by Mortgage Women Magazine," said Rieger. "I'm very fortunate to continually feel seen and respected as a woman in a leadership role at Evergreen and I hope to show other young women all that they can achieve in the mortgage industry and beyond."

Rieger has spent 25+ years as a mortgage professional, helping customers find their way home as seamlessly as possible. Recently promoted to President of Evergreen, she oversees business efficiency and the implementation of strategic goals, while continuing to be a leading voice advocating for digital transformation in the mortgage industry. She also led the charge in developing and deploying CashUp™ by Evergreen, a program that gives homebuyers and realtors a competitive advantage in today's real estate market.

"This award speaks volumes about Tamra's exemplary leadership and all she's accomplished," said Don Burton, CEO of Evergreen Home Loans. "Through her dedication to digital transformation and her efforts to spearhead CashUp™ by Evergreen, she's played a significant role in moving us to the forefront of the ever-changing mortgage industry."

Evergreen is committed to diversity and inclusion, ensuring all voices are heard and respected by fostering an environment where everyone has the opportunity to grow and flourish. The company's executive team is comprised of 60% women and company-wide, 70% of its managers company-wide are women.
