

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

EVERGREEN HOME LOANS APPOINTS
TAMRA RIEGER AS CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

BELLEVUE, Wash. – Oct. 10, 2019 – Evergreen Home Loans, a full-service, direct, home loan lender in the Western United States, announced today that Tamra Rieger will serve as its Chief Operating Officer (COO), effective Oct. 1, 2019.

In her new role, Rieger will continue to oversee secondary marketing, construction lending, processing, underwriting and funding operations. In addition, she leads digital mortgage technology initiatives and champions business intelligence by providing real-time metrics to the management team.

“Tamra has played a major strategic role in the growth of Evergreen Home Loans over the years, particularly in leading the implementation of technology initiatives that benefit our customers and associates,” said Don Burton, President of Evergreen Home Loans. “She truly represents what it means to live the convictions of Evergreen, and our team is excited about her new role and the opportunities ahead of us.”

Rieger began working in the mortgage business with Evergreen Home Loans 23 years ago. In 2013, she was named the EVP of Loan Fulfillment, in which she was responsible for the overall customer experience, both internally and externally. She also spearheaded various technology initiatives, including driving loan origination system efficiencies to implementation and the adoption of a digital mortgage experience for Evergreen customers. Previously she served as VP of Operations, VP of Secondary Marketing and SVP of Capital Markets.
